

Paul Hill
West Liberty Foods Board Chairman

Paul Hill, Board Chairman, is the owner and operator of Circle Hill Farms, Ltd., of Ellsworth, IA. Hill is a 1967 graduate of St. Olaf College in Northfield, MN, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics. He served in the Army National Guard for six years while he began raising turkeys and cattle. His operation markets approximately 700,000 heavy tom turkeys annually and 1500 acres of farmland along with 20,000 tons of organic compost.

Paul and his wife Mary were named 1995 Iowa Master Farmers by Wallaces Farmers magazine. In 2002, Hill was named the Farmer Cooperative Director of the Year by the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives. He has served as the Chairman of West Liberty Foods since its inception. Hill is the past Chairman of the Iowa Agriculture Finance Corporation and presently serves as Vice Chairman for the National Turkey Federation. Hill has three children Peter, Nathan, and Rachel.